Information about the city *  *pictures below chart	Cádiz is the capital of the province of the same name, in Andalusia. It is the most populous city in the Bay of Cádiz, located in the south of the Iberian Peninsula, at the southwestern tip of Europe. Cádiz is a peninsula located in front of the estuary of the Guadalete river, in the natural park of the Bay of Cádiz. It was named by Lord Byron as the "Siren of the Ocean" and is popularly known as the "Tacita de Plata". The city of Cadiz is known for its long and influential history and its importance in the Punic Wars, the Romanisation of Iberia, the discovery and conquest of America and the establishment of the liberal regime in Spain with its first constitution, as well as its later influence on the former independent Spanish colonies. Nowadays, its economy is mainly based on trade, shipyards and port activities. The other basic sector of Cádiz economy is tourism, due to its good climate, its fantastic beaches of fine sand, the local festivals, such as the famous Carnival of Cadiz, and the important historical heritage it possesses. Tourism guides:  https://anywhereweroam.com/things-to-do-cadiz/  https://www.thecrazytourist.com/15-best-things-cadiz-spain/
